(2) Where any proceedings have been started under sub-rule (1), the certificate issuing authority shall, by written notice, ask the person holding the certificate to deposit the same, in original, in its office and, when a certificate has been so deposited, a receipt in favour of the person depositing the certificate shall be issued.

Cancellation, impounding or revocation of certificate.—When the certificate issuing authority is satisfied that the person, in whose favour the certificate was issued, does not belong to the caste or the tribe as stated in the certificate, it shall, by order, cancel, impound or revoke the certificate and shall notify such cancellation, impounding or revocation to the person to whom the certificate was issued and also to the authority, if any, before which the certificate was produced by the holder of the certificate for gaining benefits.

6. Publication of order of cancellation, impounding or revocation of certificate.—A copy of every order of cancellation, impounding or revocation of the certificate under rule 5 shall be forwarded to the State Government by the certificate issuing authority for the information of the public in such manner as the State Government may determine.
